Meeting Notes

First Speaker of the evening, Greg Frankson

- Mr. Frankson, founder and CEO of Voice Share Inc. provides “Transformative Organizational Change” via inclusive leadership and communication. He is a published author, teacher, community activist, corporate trainer, and anti-discrimination facilitator to name only a few of his many accomplishments.
- Drawing on his many personal and professional experiences, he graciously shared with the audience inclusive strategies to be aware of with a focus on communicating effectively.

Second Speaker of the evening, Ryan Peterson

- Mr. Peterson shared with us his journey to becoming Superintendent of Parent Engagement. He reiterated the importance of parent engagement to ensure our children receive the best possible Catholic Education, and looks forward to working with OAPCE.

The final speaker of the evening, Manuela Sequiera

- As Manager of Parent Engagement, she shared with us detailed information regarding PRO Grants and the application process. She not only provided suggestions and ideas on how the grant should be spent, but she also highlighted items that the grant does not cover or is not intended for. We were reminded of the due date. Manuela was available for any questions or concerns that parents may have off line.
